PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

The defendant shall submit to the search of his person, property, home, and vehicle by a United States probation officer, or any other authorized person under the immediate and personal supervision of the probation officer, based upon reasonable suspicion, without a search warrant. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

CAUSE

Mr. Santos has requested to be supervised in the Eastern District of California to reside with his sister. Before accepting the release plan, the Eastern District of California has requested the above modification to assist in the supervision of Mr. Santos. Mr. Santos has agreed to the modification and signed a Prob 49, Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Supervised Release. On June 8, 2011, an attempt was made to contact Mr. Santos' retained counsel, Mr. Laws. As of this date, there has been no response by Mr. Laws.

United States District Court

Eastern District of Arkansas

Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Supervised Release

I have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my Conditions of Supervised Release. By "assistance of counsel," I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the Court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to the following modification of my Conditions of Supervised Release:

The defendant shall submit to the search of his person, property, home, and vehicle by a United States probation officer, or any other authorized person under the immediate and personal supervision of the probation officer, based upon reasonable suspicion, without a search warrant. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
